

STRUCTURE THERAPEUTICS INC.

POLICY REGARDING SECURITYHOLDER RECOMMENDATIONS OF DIRECTOR NOMINEES

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Nominating Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Structure Therapeutics Inc. (the “Company”) will consider director candidates recommended by the Company’s securityholders. The Committee does not intend to alter the manner in which it evaluates a candidate for nomination to the Board based on whether or not the candidate was recommended by a securityholder of the Company.

Securityholders who wish to recommend individuals for consideration by the Nominating Committee to become nominees for election to the Board at an annual general meeting of shareholders must do so by delivering a written recommendation to the Nominating Committee c/o Structure Therapeutics, Inc., 611 Gateway Blvd, Suite 223, South San Francisco, CA 94080, Attn: Secretary.

Each submission must set forth as to each nominee such securityholder proposes to nominate at the meeting: (1) the name, age, business address and residence address of such nominee; (2) the principal occupation or employment of such nominee; (3) the number of securities of the Company that are owned beneficially and of record by such nominee and list of any pledge of or encumbrances on such securities; (4) the date or dates on which such securities were acquired and the investment intent of such acquisition; and (5) such other information concerning such nominee as would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such nominee as a director in an election contest (even if an election contest is not involved), or that is otherwise required to be disclosed or provided to the Company pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (including such person’s written consent to being named in the Company’s proxy statement and associated proxy card as a nominee of the securityholder and to serving as a director if elected). The Company may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee (i) to serve as a director of the Company (ii) to determine the independence of such proposed nominee in accordance with the listing requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Exchange LLC (“Nasdaq”) or (iii) to serve on any committee or sub-committee of the Board of Directors under the Nasdaq listing requirements.

In addition, as of the date of the notice and as to the securityholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made (each, a “Proponent” and collectively, the “Proponents”): (A) the name and address of each Proponent, as they appear on the Company’s Register of Shareholders; (B) the number of securities of the Company that are owned of record and beneficially (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) by each Proponent (provided, that for purposes herein, such Proponent shall in all events be deemed to beneficially own all securities as to which such Proponent has a right to acquire beneficial ownership at any time in the future); (C) a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether oral or in writing) with respect to such nomination between or among any Proponent and any of its affiliates or associates, and any others (including their names) acting in concert, or otherwise under the agreement, arrangement or understanding, with any of the foregoing; (D) a representation that the securityholder is a holder of record of securities of the Company at the time of giving notice, will be entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (E) a representation as to whether the Proponents intend or are part of a group which intends (x) to deliver, or make available, a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Company’s voting securities required to elect the nominee, or (y) to otherwise solicit proxies or votes from securityholders in support of such nomination and/or (z) to solicit proxies in support of any proposed nominee in accordance with Rule 14a-19 promulgated under the Exchange Act; and (F) any other information relating to the Proponents required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for, as applicable, the election of directors in an election contest pursuant to and in accordance with Section 14 of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

All written submissions received from securityholders that include the information described above will be reviewed by the Nominating Committee at its next appropriate meeting. If a securityholder wishes the Nominating Committee to consider a director candidate for nomination at an annual general meeting of the Company's shareholders, then the recommendation must be provided at least 90 days, but not more than 120 days, prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding year's annual general meeting of shareholders and in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Company's Articles of Association.

The Nominating Committee will consider for nomination only those individuals who possess, among other characteristics, personal and professional ethics and integrity, a background and expertise that is useful to the Company and complementary to the background of other directors, and a willingness to devote the required time to the duties and responsibilities of the Board and any committees to which he or she may be appointed, in accordance with the criteria stated in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Each potential candidate must provide a list of references and agree (i) to be interviewed by members of the Nominating Committee or other directors in the discretion of the Nominating Committee and (ii) to a background check or other review of the qualifications of a proposed nominee by the Company. Prior to nomination of any potential candidate by the Board, each member of the Board will have an opportunity to meet with the candidate. Upon request, any candidate nominated will agree in writing to comply with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and all other policies and procedures of the Company applicable to the Board, in addition to applicable rules and regulations

The Nominating Committee will evaluate any director nominees received from securityholders in the same manner as recommendations received from management or members of the Board.
